Welcome to Historic German Village

German Village is one of the preeminent historic districts in the United States and among Columbus' most prized residential and commercial neighborhoods, located just south of downtown Columbus, Ohio.

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places since 1975, German Village is a vibrant urban community known for its charming brick streets and sidewalks, quaint gardens and beautiful public parks. Lovingly restored historic brick homes, lively social events, and a pedestrian-friendly lifestyle draws people to the area year after year.

German Village offers a perfect blend of old and new, historic and hip: 233 acres of must-see "living" history. Explore our special neighborhood and see why it's considered one of the Midwest's finest gems.

Experience German Village as the locals do:

Stroll down narrow streets and intricately patterned brick sidewalks. Browse boutique shops for one-of-a-kind items, and sample some of the best food Columbus has to offer.

Shop. Dine. Stroll.

Visit our website to learn more about German Village businesses open year-round along with our seasonal special events!

COLUMBUS, OHIO

SHOP

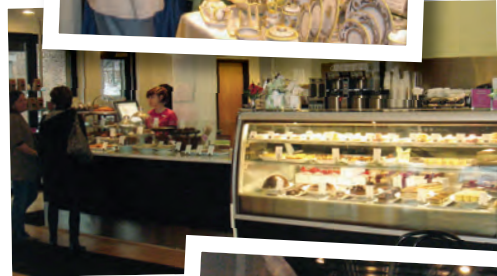

From European housewares to artisan-made jewelry. From best-selling novels to holistic pet care ... German Village offers a unique shopping experience for everyone, year-round.

Unique shops

"Stroll the cobblestone streets and admire the historic architecture in this authentic, lovingly restored ethnic neighborhood. Get lost ... or hunt for treasures" in the Village's unique, independent shops.

- Detroit Free Press

DINE

Planning a romantic evening? Need a quick bite on the run? Pick up a fresh loaf of bread on the way home or a sweet treat from an independently owned dessert house. German Village features many famed restaurants, pubs, coffee shops and bakeries sprinkled throughout the neighborhood.

Famed restaurants

"folks come from all over to visit the village's famed boutiques and restaurants."

"The neighborhood is more antique than ethnic, more hip urban enclave than living history museum."

- The Plain Dealer

STROLL

The best way to experience German Village is on foot. Stop in to the German Village Meeting Haus (588 S. Third Street) and buy a German Village Walking Tour guide. You are sure to be enchanted by our homes, our businesses and our hospitality.

Charming neighborhood

"... turns out to be one of the most atmospheric old city neighborhoods in North America. Coastal types pay good money to live in districts that only come close to approaching the charm and scale of this elegant neighborhood crowded with red brick row houses along impossibly well-kept streets."
